

Peter Muller

UNDAC Global Lead Chief,
Emergency Response Section (a.i.),
Response Support Branch – OCHA Geneva

Peter Muller is the Global Lead for the United Nations Disaster Assessment and Coordination (UNDAC) mechanism and acting Chief in OCHA's Emergency Response Section.

Peter Muller has for over 30 years been working in the field of humanitarian assistance and development, in particular for Médecins Sans Frontières (MSF), UNDP and since 2008 for OCHA.

With MSF, Peter worked in Haiti, Congo, Nigeria, Afghanistan, Sierra Leone and Uganda. He was adviser for UNDP regional Pacific disaster risk management and governance programmes and joined OCHA in 2008 as the Head of the Regional Office for the Pacific based in Fiji.

Since 2013 he is the Global Lead for the UNDAC system, based in Geneva, responsible for UNDAC emergency missions, training, methodology and strategy.

Peter has led several emergency response missions, among others to the Solomon Islands, Samoa, Myanmar, the Caribbean, Lebanon and Madagascar. His most recent emergency mission was to Türkiye, when he led the UNDAC team for the response to the earthquakes that struck Türkiye and Syria on 6 February 2023.
